A day in the life of a trainee astronaut

It can take up to two years to train to be an astronaut. After training, some astronauts wait for ten years before they make their first trip into space. So what's life like as a trainee astronaut? Well, we asked one!

'We all learn how to use and take care of the complex equipment we use, so we have many classes. These happen in a classroom, in machines that are a bit like real spaceships, and in the swimming pool. The swimming pool is very similar to being in space because you weigh much less in water!

'We also have to have language classes. My first language is Japanese, but I have to learn English and Russian too, so I can talk to the ground crew.'

31. Astronauts have ten years of training before they go into space.
32. Astronauts practice in real spaceships.

33. Working in a swimming pool is a bit like working in space.
34. All astronauts have to learn Japanese.
