III. Read and choose True or False.

Animals need safe places to live. When people cut down trees or throw trash in the water, animals can lose their homes. This makes it hard for them to find food and stay alive. We can help by planting more trees and not throwing trash on the ground or in rivers. Some people also make special parks where animals can live safely. When we take care of animals' homes, they can live happily, and nature stays pretty.

1. Animals live in dangeroud places.

2. People destroy nature by cutting trees and throwing trash in the water.
